PRICE 2 CENTS.

Eminent Doctors Praise its Ingredients.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyfe one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unleavened Bread (Helena's Food) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator... makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system. It continues in Helena's Food a medicinal agent which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is called for when it is not found that the indications for Helena's Food are present. Pain or itching in the back, with leucorrhoea; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women; mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhoea (absence of menstruation), arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and anemic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

"In more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unleavened Bread, or Helena's Food, the medicinal properties of which it most faithfully represents."

"Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of 'Favorite Prescription,' Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says: 'It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions and general enfeeblement, it is useful.'"

"Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root: 'In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states.'"

"Prof. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal: 'Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhoea (painful menstruation).'"

"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended."

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERMS.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Special Agents.

Charges Against Dr. Crapsey.

The trial of Rev. Algernon S. Crapsey, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Rochester, N. Y., will be of great importance, not only to the Episcopal Church but to all denominations that subscribe to the Apostles' Creed.

The charges of heresy contain the following quotations from his sermons: "Seventy-three years after the death of Julius Caesar, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph, a carpenter of Galilee, laid aside the tools of his trade and went down to the crossing of the Jordan, attracted by the preachings of a new and strange preacher who was stirring up the people by his vigorous denunciations of the evils of the day."

"The history of Jesus is the product of historic causes. He was born in time to meet a great opportunity, and Jesus was the man created for the purpose of inaugurating the movement that was to change the base of human life. We have thought of him so long as a mythological being; we have talked of him so long as a metaphysical abstraction, and have placed him for centuries out of the range of human vicissitudes, at the right hand of the Majesty on high, that we cannot view him in his historical relations without a shock to our reverence. Yet this historical Jesus is the real Jesus, the man of God who founded the religion called Christian."

"Jesus did not succeed because he was born of a virgin or because he was reported to have risen bodily from the dead. These legends concerning him are the result, not the cause of the marvelous success of the man. These stories were told of him because the simple people could in no other way express their conception of the greatness of Jesus."

"The creeds of Christendom are of value not as historical statements, for the primitive and medieval Christian had no historical sense."

"The religion of miracle, held full possession of the world down to the beginning of the scientific era—1530. From that day to this the religion of reason has been in conflict with the religion of fancy, and truth has been contending with imagination."

"In the light of scientific research the founder of Christianity no longer stands apart from the common destiny of man in life and death, but he is in all things physical-like as we are, born as we are, born, dying as we die, and in both life and death in the keeping of that same divine power, that heavenly fatherhood which delivers us from the womb and carries us down to the grave."

"We are not alarmed, we are relieved, when scientific history proves to us that the fact of his miraculous birth was unknown to himself, unknown to his mother, and unknown to the whole Christian community of the first generation."

Mutiny in Portuguese Navy.

Portuguese newspapers received in Madrid state that the warship Vasco de Gama, on which the mutiny occurred, anchored in the Lisbon roadstead on Friday. About 8:30 p. m. a disturbance was noticed aboard the vessel. There was shouting, reports of fire-arms were heard and signals were set asking for help. A tug put off to the anchorage, but it was received with rifle shots and forced to return. Other vessels received the same treatment. It was reported that a lieutenant had been killed to avenge a sailor, whose brains the officer had blown out as the sailor was about to fire a gun in the direction of the shore. The Vasco de Gama exchanged many signals with the Don Carlos I., on which a mutiny occurred on Monday last.

The Lisbon correspondent of the London Daily Mail says that all the Portuguese warships have been sent out of the Tagus. Each of them will make a cruise at sea. The mutinous vessels, however, will cruise within reach of the guns of the forts. It is feared that the mutinous spirit is spreading to the army. One regiment is reported to be insubordinate. A strict censorship is being maintained.

Mourning Over Wrong Body.

Thomas C. Hunt, of Pittsylvania county, was killed a few days ago at Basic City by being knocked off a train by an overhead bridge. He was identified as Thomas B. Hunt, of Rocky Mount, and C. L. Hunt, of that town, was notified by wire that his brother had been killed. The body was prepared for burial and shipped to his supposed brother. The funeral services had been arranged for on arrival of the body, which was met at the station by a concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives. The casket containing the body was taken to a church, where the funeral was preached Saturday. Before removal to the cemetery the coffin was opened, when it was discovered that the body was that of another man. It afterward developed that it was Thomas C. Hunt, of Pittsylvania county, and the remains were forwarded to his home for interment.

Don't tie a cough or a cold up in your system by taking a remedy that binds the bowels. Take Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It is better. It opens the bowels. An ideal remedy for young and old. Children like it. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 402 King Street.

Duel With Axes.

Two aged veterans of the civil war, inmates of the Soldiers' Home at Yountville, Cal., fought a duel to the death with axes yesterday morning on Cooper Branch, near San Francisco, where they were employed as woodchoppers. Joe Johnson, who was killed, was the elder of the two men. His assailant, William Voss, is not much younger, but he proved more alert in wielding a murderous weapon. Both men had been employed as woodchoppers. They went to work yesterday morning as usual. Shortly after 9 o'clock word was received of the tragedy. At the place where Johnson's body was found there is evidence of a fierce struggle. The foliage is covered with blood. The axe used by Voss was found near by. The fatal blow had been struck with great force and the keen edge had sunk far into Johnson's skull. Death must have been instantaneous. Voss did not sustain any injuries. There seems to have been no eyewitnesses to the tragedy, and the story told by Voss is the only one upon which the authorities have to work. He simply states that they had quarreled and that Johnson came after him with an axe. He met the assault and returned blow for blow until his assailant fell to the ground.

Temple of Diana Found.

King Edward and Queen Alexandra will arrive at Athens today. The visit of the King and the Queen auspiciously coincides with the announcement by Dr. Bosanquet, director of the British School of Archaeology at Athens, that he has discovered on the bank of the River Euratas nearest to the side of the ancient city of Sparta the famous Temple of Artemis, with a profusion of statues, gold, silver and ivory ornaments and other interesting relics. Dr. Bosanquet first communicated his discovery to King Edward, who yesterday telegraphed his congratulations.

The Temple of Artemis (Diana of the Ephesians) was founded 600 years before the Christian era, in Ephesus, and was rebuilt 200 years later. The temple was Ionic, dipteral, octastyle, with 21 columns on the flanks, and measured 164 by 242 feet. The base diameter of the columns was 6 feet, their height 55 feet. The tetrastyle of 36 columns of the front and rear were beautifully sculptured with figures in relief. The cella had interior ranges of columns, Ionic in the lower tier and Corinthian above.

A Young Mother of 70.

"My mother has suddenly been made young at 70. Twenty years of intense suffering from dyspepsia had entirely disabled her, until six months ago, when she began taking Electric Bitters, which have completely cured her and restored the strength and activity she had in the prime of life," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick, of Danforth, Me. Greatest restorative medicine on the globe. Sets stomach, liver and kidneys right, purifies the blood and cures Malaria, Biliousness and Weaknesses. Wonderful Nerve Tonic. Price 50c. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton and Company.
